PLEASE READ THE DISCLAIMERS BELOW

I. Limited Evaluation and Response Time

After we receive the information you have provided, we will evaluate the information and then contact you in the manner you have requested to discuss with you the results of our preliminary evaluation of the merits of your case and whether our firm is willing to represent you. If the information you have sent is not sufficient for us to provide you with full answers to all of your questions, we will contact you to obtain the necessary additional information before we give you our evaluation of your potential claim. We will make every effort to contact you the very same day regarding our evaluation.

II. Attorneys' Fees and Costs

Once again, this limited evaluation is free of both charge and obligation to you. If you decide to employ our firm to assist you, we will first review the "Statement of Client's Rights" form with you, which strictly follows the Rules of Professional Conduct for Florida attorneys, written by the Florida Bar. When you hire this firm to assist you with your wrongful death claim, no attorneys' fees are paid unless a settlement or jury verdict is secured. This is known as a contingency fee, meaning if no compensation is recovered, then no fees are charged for our legal services. If, and only if, a settlement or jury verdict is secured, we will be reimbursed for all the costs we advance on your behalf. Our contingency fee agreements are always reviewed, line by line, with the client before the agreement is signed by both client and attorney.

We accept personal injury cases on a contingency fee basis because we understand that families can be ruined, both physically and financially, when a loved one is seriously injured in an accident. Medical bills can mount quickly, and in many instances, the injured family member misses work because of their injuries, causing even greater financial hardship on the family. A contingency fee arrangement allows you and your family to receive assistance at a time you need it most.

III. Need for Complete Claim Evaluation

The initial evaluation we provide is obviously limited by the information you provide to us. Final advice can only be based upon a complete evaluation of your entire case. This cannot be accomplished with the limited information you have given us above. Often a full evaluation of a claim cannot be given without collecting considerable information, records, and other investigation. Often a decision about a claim can only be made after a personal interview.

IV. Statute of Limitations

Your claim may be barred by the Statutes of Limitations. These statutes provide that if a suit is not brought within a certain amount of time, the claim can never be thereafter brought. Likewise, the information you furnish may be furnished at a time so close to expiration of the statute of limitations that we do not have time to provide any help to you before the time expires. By asking for our help, you agree that we are not liable for failing to file suit on your behalf or failing to take any other action on your behalf.

V. No Obligation

You are not obligated to employ this firm by sending this information. Likewise, we are not obligated to accept you as a client by providing this evaluation to you. We reserve the right to decline to represent you for any reason whatsoever. Once we have provided the limited service mentioned above, we reserve the right to refuse to become involved in further evaluation of your claim or in providing further advice. If we decline to represent you, or to provide additional advice, we will so advise you in writing at the address you have given us.

VI. Additional Services Offered by Our Firm

We are available to provide additional advice and services upon written or telephone request unless we advise you of our decision not to do so as outlined above. Please review the Practice Areas section of our web page; members of our firm can assist you with a multitude of legal issues. In addition, please do not hesitate to write us if more information is needed. We appreciate your interest in our firm.
